HIGHWAY TO HALLETT

The Arbuckle Group LLC Announces the Sixth Arbucklerun, March 19th-21st, 2010

(Oklahoma City, Okla.) – The Arbuckle Group LLC confirms its sixth ‘Fun Run’ tour to Tulsa set for Saturday, March 19th. A group of high-performance luxury car fanatics will tour along an 162 mile trek from Oklahoma City, OK to Tulsa, OK

Friday evening, March 19th kicks off the ‘Fun Run’ tour to Tulsa with a private exotic car show party and champagne toast at CCS located at 517 Centennial Blvd. Edmond, OK. 73013. On Saturday morning, the cars will depart CCS for an exciting joyride on I-35 and head to an all day event at Hallett race track. The group will round off the run at the Hard Rock Hotel in Tulsa followed with an incredible prefix meal at McGills and a V.I.P. table at Friction. A brunch and award ceremony, with awards presented to chosen participants, will be held Sunday. Awards will range in various categories which include the ‘spirit award’, ‘best-costumed driver’ and ‘hottest co-driver’. The tour will conclude with a return trip back to Oklahoma.

Jay Cooper of The Arbuckle Group LLC commented that “we wanted to create a ‘fun run’ car club that brings together people who enjoy the true spirit of driving excellence in luxury and or high performance cars in a enjoyable and educational environment”.

The Arbucklerun follows a long tradition of exotic car enthusiasts joining together in true automotive spirit. The Arbuckle Group LLC is a fully licensed car event organization located in Oklahoma City, OK. For more information about the Arbucklerun please visit www.thearbucklegroup.com.
